The lawsuit alleged that Roblox had an HR department that was unequipped to deal with discrimination and harassment claims, falsely stated employees' work hours to avoid providing overtime pay, and broke state laws regarding how long time employees must be given notice before being laid off.

On December 20th, 2021, ROBLOX announced that they would be adding system tokens to enable their users to "pre-order" an item before it is put on sale. This way users can give feedback and ROBLOX could make changes if necessary.[26]. In late 2021 when the game was seemingly more popular than ever, numerous reports were made about a player called "unikraken," as well as his group of friends he allowed in his places. This user was not banned from the site for a long time, which attracted hordes of people to his server. The servers would become infested with bots, cheats, hackers and other fraudulent activities that it slowed the game for everyone. These servers have since been taken down and ROBLOX has removed as much of these malicious players' information as they could.[27]

Some parents of children who play the game have said that it is due to inappropriate content and language that their children are spending so much time on the site. Some of these parents reported being harassed by other players on the site when they themselves criticized Roblox. One parent said that far from being a "quality of life" game for his child, it was being used as a distraction to escape from reality. The following comments were made:
